A gentle westerly wind coaxed 5 boats on the water this evening. The wind shifted on the first beat as did the places. Kevin and Coranne lead the first race but the spinnaker seemed to help Jim and Kevin gain and finish first over the line. The windward mark was moved after the first beat and race was shortened due to light winds.

Great enthusiasm saw Jim and Damien over the line at the start of second race but restarted quickly. Damien was ably assisted by Maebh.

This gave Tommy and Edel a chance to get in front- we will expect great things from this new team.

Jim and Kevin took line honours in both races, followed closely by Kevin and Coranne, with Tommy and Edel finishing just in front of Damien and Maebh. The RS Vision went for a sail too. Great to see people back on the water.

Thanks to John Clark for helping me with OOD.

Next Thursday we planned to take out beginners and have a barbecue but we will defer barbecue until the end of June.
